Media Services

The Shawsheen Valley School of Practical Nursing have multiple resources available to students and faculty. There are fifty five (55) lap top computers that are available to students for use while in the building. The Life Science Wing is wireless and does have the capacity to hard wire if the wireless is not functioning. The school maintains subscriptions to The Journal of Nursing Administration, Nursing Management, Geriatric Nursing, The American Journal of Nursing and Nursing 2015. The school purchased the Nurse Assistant MedCom DVD series in August 2012 for use with the Fundamentals of Nursing curriculum. The resource room houses over one hundred resource type books, notebooks, study tools such as flash cards and videos. The technology in the Life Science Wing is new with Smart Board technology in all classrooms and the laboratory. The seminar room is equipped with a wide screen viewer and equipment to project power point presentations, internet sources, DVD's and VHS.

Media Plan

1. A systematic approach to evaluating the educational materials is completed annually by students, administrator, students and advisory members.

Reference Books: The faculty review the reference books located in the resource room using the following criteria:
